

In collaboration with

INDONESIA TRADE AND INVESTMENT OPPORTUNITIES

Wednesday, April 29th, 2015 - h. 14.45 Confindustria Emilia-Romagna, via Barberia 13, Bologna

Indonesia is the largest economy in Southeast Asia and the sixteenth in the world, with a population of over 250 million inhabitants.

During last ten years Indonesia went from a condition of political and social instability to a stable democracy, with an economic growth second only to China and India.

The economic Growth is facilitated by the raw materials of which Indonesia is rich, but also by the increasing investments and domestic demand (consumption growth: +15% per year).

PROGRAMME

14.45 Registration

Moderator: Rocco Marcuccio

15.00 Welcome address
 Ruben Sacerdoti, International Relation Office
 Manager, Emilia-Romagna Region

15.15 Indonesia: Economic Outlook

Des Alwi, Deputy Chief of Mission/Minister of the Indonesian Embassy in Rome

15.30 Trade and Investment Opportunities.

Focus on main sectors

Enrico Perego, President of Octagona srl

Indonesian market is made even more interesting by the integration in the ASEAN economic area, and the free trade agreements already signed with China, Japan, Australia, New Zealand, Korea and India.

A market where the Made in Italy presence is still little (almost 1.2 billion euro value of exports in 2014, of which 28.5% is generated by Emilia-Romagna companies) but with encouraging growth trend (+ 93% since 2008).

The seminar is an opportunity to deepen the knowledge of this Country and of the regional project IBO (Indonesia Business Opportunities).

15.45 Where Indonesia goes? The Financial support to Italian trade and investments
 Maurizio Accinni, International Development Manager, Corporate Division, BNL BNP Paribas Group

The regional project "I.B.O. (Indonesia Business Opportunities)"
 Rocco Marcuccio, International Relations Manager, Confindustria Emilia-Romagna

16.20 Financial and insurance instruments
towards Indonesia
Stefano Bellucci, Head of Center North Branch,
SACE Spa

16.45 Open discussion and Q&A session

In partnership with

